The Souls of the Saints

The Souls of the Saints

Stephanie Martin

Commissioned by Mary Barlow for the Choirs of Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria BC to the Glory of God and in memory of her husband, David Barlow (1931-2018).

This piece was first offered at the Feast of St Michael and All Angels (September 29, 2019) and the 90th anniversary of the consecration of the present cathedral building, to which David lovingly gave much of his life.

Performance Notes:

The saints mentioned in this Litany are significant to the first performance in Victoria, British Columbia, on the feast of Saint Michael and All Angels.
Saint Andrew is patron of people who fish; Saint Margaret is patron of the homeless;
Saint Cecilia, patron of musicians.
For other occasions, names of other significant saints and holy people may be substituted.

The composer wishes to express her gratitude to:

Rosemary Barlow & Christopher Thackray
Ian Alexander & Marilyn Dalzell
Dean Ansley Tucker
and to Donald Hunt, Director of Music, and all of the adults and children of the Cathedral Choirs.
